- d. Veterans

5. Subcommittee Report Out

- a. Responsible Gun Ownership: Andrea Walker provided the report out. The group has been working to get more clarification on the liability and protections for safe storage facilities. Andrea Walker and Jay Hessler met with Johns Hopkins Center for Gun Violence Solutions to discuss the topic more. Johns Hopkins Center for Gun Violence Solutions will be doing further research regarding the topic and meeting again to provide further information.
- b. Education/Outreach: Stephanie Shapiro provided the report out. The group began discussing their interest and participation in the Out of the Darkness Walk that occurs at Baker Park in September-October. Discussion was held around the need for materials/handouts for the event, to include information from other agencies/community partners. The group hopes to have more participation in the event this year from the coalition members. Further information about the event will be forthcoming. Contact sshapiro@frederickcountymd.gov regarding participation or materials/handouts for the event. The group also discussed suicide prevention efforts within their perspective roles.
- c. Postvention/Support Services following completed/attempted suicide: Kaili Van Waveren provided the report out. The group discussed will be resuming email blast efforts and the email blast will be sent out by the end of May for Mental Health Awareness Month. The email blast will include an attachment with in-person postvention services in Frederick County. The attachment will also be shared with the coalition.
- d. Veterans: Amanda Adams provided the report out. The group reviewed the CIM report for Frederick County. Trainings regarding military culture competency and other topics were discussed. Amanda Adams shared being in contact with Psych Armor regarding a possible virtual training on military culture, lethal means safety and suicide prevention. More information will be forthcoming. The group will review the CIM report more in-detail and continue to discuss at subsequent meetings.
