Frederick County Public Schools

In accordance with Stage 2 of the Maryland State Department of Education's Recovery Plan, Frederick County Public Schools will resume the summer Work-Based Learning Program effective Wednesday, July 15. Staff is seeking approved Youth Apprenticeship employers interested in participating.

FCPS will post positions for students as soon as they are available. Interested students should check <http://www.fcpsyouthapprentice.org/current-openings.html> between now and Thursday, July 9. FCPS will accept applications until Friday, July 10, and will forward applications to employers for their review as soon as they are received. The intent is for students to begin work July 15.

Additionally, seniors already enrolled in work study or internships for the fall and already participating this summer may begin earning hours. Students should email their school's Work-Based Learning Coordinator for details. A list of coordinators is posted here: <https://www.fcps.org/CTECoordinators>

For additional information, please contact FCPS Career and Technology Education Supervisor Dr. Kristine Pearl, kristine.pearl@fcps.org, or Youth Apprenticeship Support Julie Carter, julie.carter@fcps.org.
