Updates from CDC

Level of Community Transmission in Frederick County, MD: MODERATE

- Getting vaccinated prevents severe illness, hospitalization, and death; it also helps reduce the spread of the virus in communities.
- Data show Delta is different than past versions of the virus: it is much more contagious.
- In areas with substantial and high transmission, CDC recommends that everyone (including fully vaccinated individuals) wear a mask in public indoor settings to help prevent spread of Delta and protect others. Interim Public Health Recommendations for Fully Vaccinated People.

JIC Agency Updates

Frederick County Public Schools: Frederick County Public Schools will be requiring all students and staff to wear face coverings inside our schools for the start of the 2021-22 school year.

More detailed information about this requirement is provided in The Superintendent’s Update.

There will be no requirement to wear face coverings outdoors; however, it is strongly recommended particularly for those who are unvaccinated.

The requirement to wear face coverings on school buses continues to be in effect.

* Please note these allowable exceptions to mask wearing:

- Medical condition
- Disability
- Developmental immaturity
- Or other health or safety concerns as indicated by the Center for Disease Control

Maryland State Update

Contact Tracing: One Year In

While case counts are down, the pandemic is not over. Public health experts agree, contact tracing is and will continue to be an important tool for disease containment. In this webinar, we will review what we have learned from contact tracing and why this public health strategy continues to play a vital role.

Participants will learn about contact tracing, Maryland’s smartphone exposure notification service (MD COVID Alert), and how to support their communities during this stage of the pandemic.
